Alexandria-Fairfax (VA) Alumni Chapter
Chartered June 5, 1976 at Bolling AFB
Kappa Scholarship Endowment Fund
Incorporated March 8, 1990

The Alexandria-Fairfax (VA) Alumni Chapter Kappa Scholarship Endowment Fund, Inc. (KSEF) was incorporated March 8, 1990. KSEF is a tax exempt 501c(3) organization whose purpose is to promote the general welfare and development of youth and was formed to address the need in the Northern Virginia area to provide financial assistance to deserving students. KSEF provides scholarships, grants, loans, and other types of financial aid to worthy African-American college students and prospective college students who might find it difficult to attend college otherwise. KSEF maintains ten scholars awarded $6,000.00 scholarships spread across four years.

KSEF operates on the premises that education is a key factor in achieving success in today's highly competitive world, and deserving students should be afforded the opportunity to further their education; even those that may have limited resources. KSEF is dedicated to providing financial assistance to these deserving students. "Through its motto: 'Providing Training for the Leaders of Tomorrow' KSEF is dedicated to providing financial assistance to deserving students."

KSEF monitors scholars throughout their college years in order to provide mentorship, career counseling, job placement assistance, and plain encouragement. Scholars attend a myriad of institutions ranging from Historically Black Colleges and Universities to Ivy League schools. KSEF is proud to acknowledge a more than ninety-five percent graduation rate for the students the Foundation has provided educational assistance to since inception in 1990.
